

Dr. Qasim Mahmood Alhadidi, B.Sc., M.Sc., Ph.D.,
Chair, Department of Pharmacy

Education:

B. Sc. in Pharmacy (2003), College of Pharmacy, The University of Baghdad.

M. Sc. in Pharmacology and Toxicology (2008), College of Pharmacy, The University of Baghdad.

Ph.D. in Medicinal and Biological Chemistry (2017), College of Pharmacy, The University of Toledo, Ohio, USA.

Postdoctoral Fellowship in the Department of Anesthesiology (2018), College of Medicine, Stanford University, California, USA.

Memberships:

A member of the Iraqi Syndicate of Pharmacists Since 2003.

A member of the society for neuroscience since 2014

A member of the American Society for Pharmacology and Experimental Therapeutics (ASPET) since Jan 2016.

Research Interest:

I am interested in the neurobiology of stroke with a long-term goal is to develop an effective therapy which can mitigate stroke injury and/or drive functional recovery.

Publications:

<https://scholar.google.com/citations?user=bbTwlBgAAAAJ&hl=en>